

SARDAR BHAGWAN SINGH UNIVERSITY ORGANIZED ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON MATRIX RHYTHM THERAPY

Sardar Bhagwan Singh University, Balawala, Dehradun in collaboration with Matrix Rhythm, India organized an advance workshop on Matrix Rhythm Therapy for the Master in Physiotherapy students of the university on Monday, November 01. The workshop was graced by the presence of famous German researcher and inventor of Matrix Rhythm Therapy, Dr. Ulrich Randoll. The workshop was also live for the alumni and clinicians. Prof. Maneesh Arora (Dean Students Welfare) and Dr. Reena Kumari (Head, School of Physiotherapy and Allied Health Science) accorded a floral welcome to the resource person, Dr. Ulrich Randoll. Dr. Devashree and University Captain (Boys) Mr. Puneet Dave presented shawl to Dr. Ulrich Randoll. Dr. R. Arun Mozhi welcomed Mr. Anil Deshpande Head, Matrix Rhythm India with a floral bouquet. Dr. Ulrich Randoll enlightened the fellow physiotherapy students of SBS University (via offline mode) and the ex-students of the university and other fellow physios (Nationally/Internationally placed) about how rhythmically pulsating processes such as ‘time pattern’ and ‘space pattern’ influenced the pathological-anatomical structures. Such workshop creates an ambience between students, teachers and fellow physiotherapist. Dr. Randoll encouraged and wished participants for their bright future. The program was coordinated by Dr. Niranjan Shah, Dr. Mohit Bhatt, Mr. Vishal Warikoo and Mr. Paras Joshi.
